AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also, in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, the various specifications, Bonds Assignments, and all kinds of Drawings for Patents, upon the most liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington

The agency is not only the oldest in New England, but through its invention have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not unequaled by any other, as can be offered there elsewhere. The testimonials below given, prove that more success attends the Patent Office than the subscriber, and as much as the best proof of diligence and economy, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during several years past, has enabled him to accumulate a rare collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, will, in cases of rejected applications, secure to inventors such information as will be of great service to them. Testimonials from the Commissioner of Patents, and from eminent Solicitors, may be seen at the office of the subscriber.

Hints to inventors, pamphlets containing the Patent Laws, and forms for applications, may be had gratis on application personally or by letter.

Models and Drawings should be forwarded by Express, Adams' Express Co. preferred.

"No Coercion" Again.

One of the professedly loyal democratic papers of this State has the following remarks:

The Second New Hampshire Regiment, it is reported, are to be kept at home to enforce the conscription act. This would be an unfortunate manner of administering the law. The Government had better appeal to the reason of its people than to military coercion.

The New Hampshire regiment was probably no more sent home for the purpose indicated than the 7th Maine was. There will be no "coercion" if there is no resistance—but the democratic organ may rest assured that when its friends so lose their "reason" as to attempt the resistance they have threatened, the Government will not hesitate to use coercion. If it does hesitate to maintain its own legal authority, it is that moment a subverted Government. The doctrine of "no coercion" now preached is the same as that preached by the same papers two years ago. It was then urged as a reason for not resisting rebels. It is now advised in relation to Northern rebels. Democratic papers of the stamp of the Argus Age, Bel fast Journal, &c., &c., while professing loyalty to the Government, are thus in fact advising the Government to yield itself up, tied hand and foot, to the power of traitors who would speedily destroy its life. They have done all they could to prevent men of their own party, or men of any party, from enlisting in the Union service—by unreasoning assaults upon the Government, by ceaseless representations of the hardships and sufferings endured by the soldiers, by magnifying rebel strength and understating our own resources, by making the war appear a hopeless one, and that the country can have no rest except in a disgraceful submission to the rebel demands, which are in fact a destruction of the Union. We say the organs of the Breckinridge democracy have thus done all that is possible with them to prevent the Forming of our armies by voluntary enlistment. They know that if the war is to be carried on more troops must be had—as in all armies in every country the waste by death is great, by sickness and by battle, has to be constantly made good by new levies. They know, too, that the rebels are putting in force the most relentless and terrible of all the conscriptions ever known in the world, to recruit their armies being in fact their last desperate effort—and if we do not meet this with adequate reinforcements, the Union cause must be lost, and the Republic destroyed. Knowing all this, these organs which profess to sustain the war "deliberately and persistently oppose every measure for recruiting our armies. They discourage enlistments by the manner and tone of the comments upon the war—they declare the conscription act unconstitutional, and by direct implication advise the democrats to resist it—and then they ask the Government not to use coercion in its enforcement! What there! If we take their advice the Government is already subverted—for it only requires the carrying out of the Brooks and Vallandigham platform—the secession to draft as unconstitutional, and the adoption of the secession advice of the peace democrats—to bring the great American "experiment" of free government to an end. Yet, strange as it may seem, the very papers which take this course and give this advice, claim to be the truer of and supporting the rebellion! While denouncing every measure of the Government for raising either men or money for the war, they still prate about "maintaining the Constitution and the Union." They go for "carrying on the war with vigor" but interpose every possible obstacle in the way of raising the means. What patriots are these! With one hand they uphold the banner of the Union, but it with the other they smite down the Union itself. They swear by the symbol, while they destroy the reality.

The copperheads say out against the "barbarism" of employing negro soldiers against the rebels, but they don't stop to, when the rebels employ negro soldiers against the Government. The Nashville Union says that during the recent fight at Franklin, Tenn., both of our batteries was attacked by five rebel negro regiments. These negroes are forcing the fight against us by using bayonets around their muzzles. Let us the negroes would fight willingly, if we would but use them decently and with common humanity.

If you confine yourself to a "democratic" paper for news, you will remark one singular circumstance—that is our spelling excites more in the lowest sense a short limit of expectation—all that are reported are listed "from Secession." Can anybody explain this to the last but we give it up, we find them travelling towards to the Democratic.

The New York World, one of the most radical pro-slavery journals, admits that a serious but just rebuke those copperhead journals which continue to charge the Detroit mob upon the colored people of that city. The World says it is no negroes who are responsible, but the spirit of slavery. It was emphatically a white man's mob, instigated by one of those brutal acts on the part of a colored, think of which from dread of white brutes have been equally guilty.

"The impression has been most abroad and the town has day opening elections demonstrates such feelings in arming for the coming year. To avoid a repetition of the last spring's error in this enlargement. We reserve it true, and a quiet course a test in democratic purple, also if there should be an election, not elsewhere.

Comments on the above. [Why this is what we have so far kept, of the towns which have yet elected, and reported in the papers they stand—Units 162, "Democratic" 79. The cities and large towns have gone Union in much greater proportion than this.

War Seed and its Native Soil.

Mr Editor

Allow me to use the figures of two trees to represent the conflicting elements of which the present war is the issue. Long ago was discovered a kind of fruit very destructive as an article of course, leaving the earth bare for a very large vicinity. That tree has been again and again and drops its malison bell in our pleasant land, and desolation is in its best. As every effect has its cause, and every fruit is seed, let us find it in this case. We trace the lineage of this tree back to 1620, when a cargo of African captives were landed on our shores, and the system of slavery was planted in the soil of liberty.

It is too late now to complain of the direful descent this of that war, or to cry peace, peace, after the seed has been planted for more than two centuries, and nourished into a thrifty tree. Men might have brought dilatory elements in the form of compromises in contact with it and toughened its stems so that it would have continued pendant perhaps, till we had passed off the stage, and our children taken up the chase of our game. But now we have the burden on our own shoulders. What shall we do? Shall we gather its fruits—let its leaves wither and fall—let it sleep through the dreary season of want and woe and then when the spring time of prosperity returns to our land, blindly allow it to put forth new leaves, blossom, bear and scatter its fruit of desolation again? I answer no. Let us strike this tree up by the roots, let the flames consume it, and give the ashes to some muckel philosopher with which to try experiments of annihilation. Then destroy the seed that is scattered, and the tree of liberty thus pruned and cultivated, will thrive again, and its fruits will be a rich and multiplied return.

——, Co M, 1st Maine Cavalry

Aquia Creek, Feb 7, 1863.

A ball has been perfected, and will probably pass, in the Michigan Legislature, for the punishment of desertion. It provides that any person convicted of desertion shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison or county jail for a term not exceeding two years. Another section punishes persons who secure soldiers to desert or excite mutiny, by imprisonment in the state prison no more than five years. The bill also provides that any person who shall pay at a draft or discourage enlistments, or incite resistance to military laws, shall be imprisonment in the state prison or county jail no more than one year. Another section provides a punishment of imprisonment of not less than two years in the state prison, or a fine of no more than $1000, for concealing or knowingly harboring a deserter. These are the civil penalties proposed. The articles of War provide more serious punishments when the offender is tried by a Court Martial.

THE NEXT CONGRESS. Calculations carefully made in Washington leave no doubt that the Republicans will have a clear working majority in the next House of Representatives, unless they are entirely overwhelmed in Maryland and Connecticut here in every prospect that in November next Delaware will send a Republican to Congress instead of Fisher, the present Democratic representative.

SOUTHERN UNION OF THE "PEACE" DEMOCRACY. The Richmond Inquirer speaking of the Northern Democrats who are urging a Peace Convention to settle up the troubles with the South, says:

"If they repudiate the debt they have contracted, and abandon the government they have established and restart the vows, and break pledges, and murder, if it will, we shall be charmed; the movement will sure as perfectly, and although we must not exactly respect the actors in that fair, yet we shall not be unwilling to trade with them—holding our noses a little—and to show them all suitable civilities—but at a proper distance. We presume they will be told that the first thing they have to do is to call back their forces to their own territory, but then we will be willing to make treaties with them, but this as to an union with the United States, under the old flag, or any other, they settle two years too late. Two years, and an ocean of horror and hatred, and the blood of our slaughtered brothers crying aloud from the ground as the first that ingulfed union."

From the Kennebec Journal

The following extract from a recent letter from one of the most intelligent and capable soldiers in the Army of the Potomac is respectfully commended to those who preferred to think the army is not in earnest to carry on the war.

I see by the newspapers that the Maine elections have gone generally Republican. I hope it is so, for I suppose the copperheads have been hard at work trying to carry them. I tell you the soldiers are beginning to realize pretty sensibly the effect of the sympathy they are receiving from the "peace men" in the North. They see that it is that they cannot see that they have quite as much to fear from them as from Southern traitors. I wish the North to go right squarely in for subjugation. It will be worth more than a thousand battle for our cause, and will be a severe blow to the South.

The riots are expecting trouble in the North before the spring is through.

A WAR FROM CHARLESTON. The Charleston, S. C., Courier, takes the following rather somber view of the prospects of secession. Charleston is no doubt a very good point just now for making such a show of circumstances as this:

The continuance of this content involves increase of suffering. The wells which follow in the train of the relentless visitation grow more distant every day. Other hearts than those now aching with anxiety and bleeding from bereavement are sent with grief, and the friend who sympathized with some afflicted one yesterday, to-day weeps bitter tears over his own sorrows. The iron is driven deeper, and our burden becomes more and more heavy. And though eighteen months have passed away since the strife was begun, the end seems more distant than it appeared to be at the first month since. Hope after hope has gone out in darkness, and expectations we had fondly cherished have proved but to be miserable delusions. So often have the people disappointed and deceived that now our faith repels every promise and turns away from every sign. Our foe is active and determined, and our relief so slow to come, and the spirit that was to compel a ruthless nation to into terms and let us rest in law wicked and infamous contest, has not been potent enough to accomplish that end.

CELEBRATION OF ST PATRICK'S DAY. Our Irish fellow citizens turned out with full ranks yesterday, headed by the Bangor Cornet Band, to celebrate the anniversary of the canonization of Ireland's Patron Saint. After services at the church, they partook of a dinner at the Depot House. The numbers attending this celebration were larger than at any similar occasion for several years past.

An Acknowledgement from the Soldiers.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier

Among a large lot of boxes received by the 19th Maine Regiment was one containing a portion of the proceeds of a levee held by the ladies of Rockport, Me. The box was directed to me with instructions to distribute the articles among the most needy. As the boys received the nice, warm stockings, they would smile and say, "these are such as we had at home—just what we need should we get stuck in the mud."

Ladies, your efforts in our behalf do us good. The articles not only add to our comfort, but make our hearts stronger and braver, as they speak of your remembrance of us.

Those wishing to make donations to soldiers cannot do better than to send them to some responsible person for distribution.

SERG'T GEO R. PALMER,

ARREST OF LEAVER. Wm S Leaver was arrested in Portland yesterday, charged with robbing Cartier's Sail Loft, which was destroyed by fire a few weeks since. Officer Walker tracked Leaver to Portland, Boston, Charleston and other places. At the latter place Leaver enlisted in the Navy, and this deserted. Yesterday morning he came into Portland in a West India vessel, which he got aboard of, where she put in, in distress. He was arrested and brought here by officer Hall, whom Walker employed when in Portland, and now in jail.

Officer Walker has been engaged in following him for two weeks or more, and has at last succeeded in getting him, much to his own satisfaction as well as to the satisfaction of the public.

Hudson Town Election.

The Democrat of Bangor on this city puts down the Selectmen of Hudson as "all democrats"—A friend from the town gives the result as follows

Moderator—A C Potter, Republican

Selectmen—A C Potter, Republican, E W Goodwin, Republican, Otis Rowe, Union Democrat

Treasurer and Collector—Henry W Briggs, Union Democrat

Clerk—Wm F Jewet, Republican

Hudson is considered a "democratic" town.

Dexter Town Election.

DEXTER, March 16, 1863

Mr Editor

At our annual town meeting held to day for the purpose of choosing town officers, the following gentlemen, all good Union men, were elected by large majorities:

Moderator—Josiah Crosby

Selectmen—Nathan Wyman, Stephen Leighton and E D Jumper

Clerk—Josiah McCrilis

Treasurer—J W Barker

Town Agent—Nathan Wyman

Superintending School Committee—L Kingman, W M Lovejoy and J W Wormell

The Copperheads made a desperate struggle, putting in nomination their strongest man, Dr. G M Harleigh, and throwing a larger vote than at the September election. On the heaviest vote thrown for the day we beat them by a majority of 118, after which their numbers seemed to "grow small by degrees and beautifully less" until on the ballot for U S Commissioner, when they threw but a single vote.

We feel to-night as though we could fill our quota for another call of six hundred thousand men, and then have enough of us left to take care of traitors.

☞ Levant, Corinna and Dexter, in this county, elected Union town officers last Monday—Glenburn, which is generally democratic, went the same way this year, and we understand that from some reason not now explained, but not from want of Union sentiment at all, the Orono town officers have also been chosen by the Democrats. On the other hand, Hudson, which has been claimed by the Democrats, has, in fact, elected Republicans and Union Democrats.

[ORONO. Since the above was written we learn that the board elected in Orono is about the same as last year, and that no regular democratic nomination was made.]

☞ The Journal says that the "Lewiston Light Infantry" will open a free military school on Monday evening, March 16th, to continue Monday and Friday evenings each week, till further notice. The school will be under the direction of the accomplished soldier, Captain I B Faunce.

☞ Bark Frost, A Badger, 480 tons, built at Millbridge in 1862, was abandoned at sea about the middle of February. The wreck was passed Feb. 20th, in lat. 40, lon. 57. Crew probably left in a hurry as trunks, clothing, &c., were left on deck; bark dismasted and rudder gone.

☞ Mrs. Lucy Watson, an old lady of 82 years, died suddenly in her chair at Portland, on Sunday last.

☞ Mr. Charles H Wakefield of Bath, recently of the Ocean House, Hunnewell's Point, has been appointed Third Assistant Engineer, and ordered to report forthwith on board steamer Fort Jackson, at New York.

AN EXPRESS STEAMER. The Portland Price Current says that J W Dyer has just closed a contract to build at his Yard, Cape Elizabeth, a stern wheel steamer of about 200 tons, 245 feet long. She is expected to go into the employ of some of the Express companies, for running up the shoal rivers South.

DIVISION OF FREEPORT. Since the division of the town on the "Sampson line" three years since, which rent the village in twain, projects for reunification of the line, and for further divisions have become so numerous that the discussions seem to have resulted in chronic inflammation of the town liver. The latest scheme has just succeeded in passing through both branches of the Legislature, and has become a law. That part of the town, comprising about one thousand acres, lying west of the Harraseeket stream, has been annexed to Monroe. The residents upon it are John Moor, L D Moor, W Moor, Eben Mayo, R W Mayo, Daniel Smart, John Hobbs, Samuel Parker, Richard Parker, Fred Parker, Samuel Collins, Charles Garland, Nathaniel Grant and James W Dolof. Amount of tax paid by them about $200 on a valuation of $10,600.—The residents are to pay their proportion of the town debt, and to support one of the bridges.—Yorkshire

THE INDICATIONS OF THE NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION. The Boston Journal says:

Let the loyal men of the country, and especially those in authority, not underestimate the significance of the late victory in the Granite State. It was a trial of what could be done in a struggle of patriots men with the misguided or wilfully malicious Democracy—the patriots deprived of all aid from perhaps a balance of 6000 loyal men absent in the service, and the struggle to take place when the true men had to achieve a victory, if at all with the weight of the people would be faint and sick through the recent siege. Never has there been a moment during this important canvass when Copperheadism would dare to stand to show its head if the soldiers could have appeared at the polls to cast their votes. The Democratic leaders had their hopes founded wholly upon the absence of loyal men fighting for their country. Had victory perched on our banners at Vicksburg, Charleston or Savannah, a month ago, disloyalty in New Hampshire would have slunk away to its hole, ashamed and confounded. On the other hand, had we met with reverses, great would have been the exultation of Pierce and George, whose sympathies here always been with the rebels and who would have bounded on their success new hopes for the future as well as assurance of triumph in the State election.

God grant that the time may soon come when the national arms will achieve such brilliant and complete success as shall consign to everlasting ignominy and contempt all those who, in the hour of the country's deepest sorrow and depression, had no word of cheer no hand of help, but who spent all their health and all their strength in giving aid and comfort to the enemy. God be praised, that at this, the darkest period, we trust and under every discouragement, likely to meet us, the heart of the people of New Hampshire was found to be strong, and their faith unfaltering and their courage undaunted. A Republican Governor, secured by a portion only of the Republican voters of the State, a Republican delegation (entirely we trust) sent to Congress, the Legislature overwhelmingly loyal, and the Government in all its measures of effectual legislation and energetic action, endorsed by the people, under these circumstances and disadvantages, are great and most encouraging indications. We believe there is yet balm in Gilead, and that the nation is not to be lost.

Let it be borne in mind, too, that the wealth of New York, unhesitatingly embarked in the enterprise of bringing New Hampshire into an abandonment of the Government, they believed that everything could be bought with money, and when they appropriated "as much money as was necessary," they verily thought New Hampshire was a foregone copperhead State. The late election has demonstrated that the Granite State is not in the market. It is not to be quoted by the brokers at their stock sales, as obtainable at any price. We say then, well done New Hampshire! Under circumstances the most trying and discouraging, her loyalty and patriotism has been demonstrated to be proof against all temptation or assault.

PRICES IN RICHMOND. Gen Dix, in a private letter to John Van Buren, says:

WASHINGTON, 17th.

The following was received at the headquarters of the army.

MURFREESBORO, March 16.

To Major General H W Halleck General-in-Chief:

I have the pleasure to report the gallant conduct of our cavalry under the brave Colonel Minty.

They have driven the enemy wherever they have met them, captured one of their camps, 17 wagons, 42 mules, and 114 prisoners. They used the sabre where the carbines would have delayed them.

Major General commanding.

WASHINGTON, 17th

The Navy Department have been informed of the capture off New Inlet, St. George's Sound, of schooner Hottense, from Havana, bound to Mobile, and of schooner Ann, which was endeavoring to break the blockade, inside the bar, off the mouth of the Savannah River.

WASHINGTON, 17th.

An additional list of officers have been reported at the headquarters of the army for mainly absence without proper authority; others for failure to report at convalescent camps and overdraft; several for drunkenness, and one for accepting bribes for procuring discharges of soldiers. They will stand disqualified from the service of the United States unless within 15 days they appear before the commission in session in Washington, of which General Hallock is President, and make satisfactory defense to charges against them.

There is less leniency than heretofore towards such classes of offenders.

The visit of General Wool to Connecticut was made the occasion for quite a turn out of the patriotic loyalists on the route, amounting to quite an ovation at Bridgeport and all the stations. The crowds insisted upon the old warrior saying a few words but he declined, promising to acknowledge their kindness on his return. At New Haven he was welcomed by an immense concourse of citizens, where he and his Staff were joined by Jos. Buckingham and proceeded to the Mayor's office, where the party were officially welcomed by that functionary. A visit was made to the Light House, where plans for a new fort to be erected in that vicinity were exposed, together with the Topography of the ground, &c.

Governor Buckingham and staff afterwards accompanied the General to New London, where further inspections of other localities will be made with a view to fortifying the mouth of Thames River more impregnably than at present. The inspecting party is receiving great attention from the cities of that State.

Previous to his departure he requested Mr. Corwin to accept the charge of Prussian subjects as well as those of Hanover and Spain, left in his interest on by the withdrawal of Count De Bullow in December 1861. HOW AN IRON-CLAD STOOD FIRE. The Albany Argus, publishes a letter from Charleston giving a vivid description of an attack upon the Genesis Point (sand) Battery, near that city, which was giving protection to the steamship "Nashville," wanting to run the blockade.

The interesting part of this adventure is the performance of the Montauk—she being one of the new class of Monitors, and this being the first time any of them have been subjected to the severe test of actual service. You will be interested, I know, in hearing of the powers of iron. She is a great curiosity. The shot struck her in every part necessary to fully prove her invulnerability. Gather fist-thick, protected by one-inch plates, over eight of oak, and beams 12x12 in., twenty-three inches apart, she received five or six shots they made furrows, but glanced, doing no injury; her side armor (5 in.) was struck reps stedily, making dents about one inch deep, covering a segment of one-fourth the circumference of the shot, which were smashed by the impact.

Upon her turret (11in.) similar dents were made, but not so deep; the same effect was produced upon the pilot-house on top of the turret (6 in. iron). No visible effect whatever is discernable inside, except in the pilot house, where seven of the bolt heads, which there secure the plating, were thrown violently through and inside by the impact. The people there were obliged to take refuge outside under the lee of the turret. In no place was there the least sign of penetration. The enormous 15 inch gun weighing with its carriage 45,000 pounds, was handled with ease. No trouble or annoyance was experienced from the concussion or smoke either from the impact of shot inside or from the discharge of the gun.

When a shot struck the turret, it sounded like the smashing of a nut upon an anvil. Many difficulties were experienced, but all admit of a remedy, but it is a marvel how such complicated machinery worked upon its first trial. The turret weighing 160 tons is, as you know, keyed up from below, and its weight supported upon a shaft; after continued firing it sagged somewhat, and considerable trouble was encountered in keeping up, so that it would revolve easily.

THE LOSS OF THE JACOB BELL—Naval Views of Rebel Property. A son of Rev. J. W. Johnson, who was a passenger on the ship Jacob Bell, captured and destroyed by the pirate Florida, communicates to the New York Post some interesting incidents connected with the capture of the Bell:

"The privateer sent a boat to us with a prize-master, who, approaching Captain Fristle, exclaimed: 'I am your prize.' The Captain replied, 'But this is English property!' 'I can't help that,' said the prize-master, 'I must obey my orders.' Captain Frisbie said, 'Is this the way you take English property on the high seas?' 'Yes, sir,' returned the other, 'Lord John Russell said that if English subjects put their property on American vessels they must look for pay to the Confederate government.'

"Captain Frisbie did not say much more, but went below to get ready to leave, and soon another boat came from the Florida, in charge of the doctor. Before this second boat came the captain was told by the prize-master that the passenger would be taken on board the Florida.

Then a third boat came, and the two passengers (Mrs. Williams and myself) were taken on board the privateer, the crew being first transferred. One of the officers of the Florida assured us that our personal property would be respected.

The boats were lowered over the side of the Jacob Bell in a chair wrapped in the American flag. The crew of the Bell were relieved of their knives, and obliged to sign a paper, agreeing that they would offer no resistance while on board.

A singular scene of robbery and plunder now took place on the Jacob Bell. The officers of the privateer went on board and broke open boxes and trunks (private property), the contents of which the crew conveyed to the Florida; the brute then took all the ship stores of the Bell, providing themselves with sugar, tea and other luxuries.

The passengers each saved one trunk, but lost everything packages, containing clothing, relics, presents from friends in China, books and memorandums of a visit to the oriental country. Many of these relics were shamefully appropriated by the crew and officers. They took all the silver plate, furniture, correspondence, charts, linen and one whale boat. They took the trunks marked with the names of Mrs. Williams, and myself, broke them open and stole, about the decks most of the contents as they did not wish much."

Editorial and Other Items.

—A FAIR PROPOSITION. The editor of the Belfast Age makes the following proposition to the proprietor of the Belfast Journal, which the latter ought to accept or cease charging the former with cowardice. The Age says:

"We will make this proposition: You shut up your publication office, and we will ours; you go and enlist in Jeff Davis' ranks where you belong, and we will enlist in the ranks of Lincoln, where we belong. We will endeavor to find out to what corps you belong, and we will get into that which we are most likely to have a brush with yours. We will agree to bring ourself in pistol range armed with a smart gun and then

"Say on, Macduff,
And d—d be he who first cries hold enough."

—Flour is $65 per barrel in Charleston and $75 in Mobile.

—The Evening Post says the people of Connecticut may believe Fernando Wood's story about the proposition a pcsde when he brings his witnesses—but not till then.

—Rats desert a sinking ship; so does the New York Herald desert the Vallandigham Copperhead Democracy. It denounces them all as traitors in full league with Jeff Davis to destroy the Union. A cause must be very hopeless and unpopular one when the Herald quits and denounces it.

—In a new rebel conscription act, every negro who has the least cross of white blood in his veins is to be pressed into the rebel army. There is impartial justice in this. It shows that these rebel law-makers are too magnanimous to exempt even their own children.—Prentice.

—There is a man out West under the delusion that "Hon" places before a man's name stands for honest.

—President Lincoln when informed that General Stoughton had been captured by the rebels at Fairfax, is reported to have said that he did not mind the loss of the Brigadier as he did the loss of the horses. "For," said he, "I can make a much better Brigadier in five minutes than he has shown himself to be, but the horses cost a hundred and twenty-five dollars apiece."

—A minister out West advertised, in the hope of making young people come forward, that he would marry them for a glass of whiskey, a dozen of eggs, the first kiss of the bride, and a quarter of a pig.

—No sad man is ever brought to repentance by angry words, bitter, scornful reproaches. He fortifies himself against reproof, and has a back seal charges in the face of his accuser. Yet guilty and hardened as he seems, he has a heart in his bosom, and may be melted to tears by a gentle voice. Wisdom, therefore, can restrain his disposition to blame and find fault, and can bring him well down to a fallen brother, will soon find a way to better feelings within. Pity and patience are the two keys which unlock the human heart.

—Gerrit Smith has contributed $500 towards raising a regiment of colored troops in Massachusetts, and will raise $3000 more for the same purpose in New York.

—Lord Lyons, the British Minister at Washington, gave a Sir Hun. dinner in honor of the marriage of the Prince of Wales. The sentiments expressed towards our own Government on the occasion by the distinguished guests were of the most cordial character.

—HOW THE SEVEN WERE SCARED BY THE QUAKEN MONITOR. Rear Admiral Porter, in a private letter, says that he made, in twelve hours, out of a fast boat, the "Turreted Monster," of whose exploits below Vicksburg the Richmond Examiner makes so much fun.—He sent her floating down the Mississippi without a crew or pilot. As she passed between the rebel batteries they opened on her fiercely, several hundred shots in all being fired. She escaped uninjured, and went on her way down stream triumphantly, the Queen of the West running before her. At last, when she was supposed to have got 25 miles below Vicksburg, a loud explosion was heard, which the rebel telegram show to have been "caused by the destruction of the Indianola."

The Falmouth, Va., correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer writes:

Since General Hooker has been in command, all exchange of newspapers has been forbidden and the rebels, being deprived of their usual supplies of news from these sources are becoming restive and desirous of opening the exchange system again. The order against, however, has been vigorously enforced, and they are kept in the dark as to our movements. Flags of truce go over very seldom, and when they do our officers are reticent. The rebel officers of late, have been extremely anxious to know what news there is on our side.

The prevalent [illegible] or infection which we call Scrofula [illegible] in the constitution of multitudes [illegible] either produced [illegible] feeble [illegible] of that fluid become incompetent to sustain the vital forces [illegible] vigorous action and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation," indeed it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are sound constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all druggists every where, and by all the dealers in medicine in Bangor, and merchants elsewhere. aug26d Ssw owlydaw

Ayer's
SARSAPARILLA

Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From [illegible]

I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community.

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt Stratton, Bristol, England.

I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months.

From Mrs Jane E Rice, a well-known and much esteemed lady of Dennisville, Cape May Co., N. J.

My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her.

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely known firm of Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as anybody's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA.

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood

From Dr. Robt. Sawin, Houston St., New York.

DR. AYER: I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people.

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio.

For twelve years I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all.

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Tunkhannock Democrat, Pennsylvania.

Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skillful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die.

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

From Dr. Hiram Sloat, of St. Louis, Missouri.

I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have.

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

DR. AYER: My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required.

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA relieved him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhoea, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulceration, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, in aid of the SARSAPARILLA, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrill, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of irregularity, Leucorrhoea, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhoea of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia, when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

Let this preparation be fairly tested and it will be found worthy the name and fame of a true

ANODYNE!

To the Sleepless Invalid it gives the most refreshing sleep.

To Females suffering the pains of Monthly Menstruation it completely relieves, while Nature's work is undisturbed. This is of great importance as from this source dates most, if not all wrecks to the Nervous System, and Chronic Female Complaints.

For Stomach, or Tape Worms, it is a sure remedy.

For children, when Teething, it completely soothes the pain by diluting with milk and rubbing the gums. When very severe give it in 5 to 10 drop doses in milk and is a perfect relief.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD TONIC.

LET our possessions be what they may—marble palaces, broad lands, magnificent plate or caskets of precious stones—they all sink in the balance as against Heaven's great boon, HEALTH, and they cannot be enjoyed without it. The language of nature attests that whoever would enjoy the pleasures of [illegible] the beauties of flowers and landscapes, the joys of companionship, the richness [illegible] the honors of station and [illegible] must [illegible] their health. And yet [illegible] now carelessly preserved [illegible] receptacle of all noxious [illegible] from which all parts of [illegible] tenance. When food [illegible] stomach, acute sympathy [illegible] organs, and disease [illegible] follow. The laws of nature [illegible] with impunity. [illegible] which chases men about and shapes [illegible] wards a miserable life and premature death. There can be no medical remedy [illegible] lead into food or poisoned drinks [illegible] ment, but medical science can assist nature's [illegible] plus exhausted fluids and to a great extent [illegible] rect the effects of disease when the [illegible] abandoned.

The Medical Faculty have exhausted [illegible] for generations in creating appetizers [illegible] coming stomachic derangement. Certain ingredients were well established as possessing beneficial qualities, among these were CALISAYA Bark and St. Croix Rum [illegible] nent were wanting and [illegible] obtained. An inland [illegible] the tropical island of St. Croix [illegible] its own natives and gathered [illegible] receipt for the final accomplishment [illegible] corporated [illegible] produced the [illegible] without a [illegible] of the [illegible] In [illegible] as a private medicine [illegible] by that it is now being produced [illegible] immense quantities under the name [illegible] Plantation Bitters or Old Home [illegible]. They act with the power of a medicine [illegible] taken [illegible] replaced [illegible] erage. The sale of these Bitters was at first confined to our extreme Southern cities but they are now becoming well known throughout the [illegible] and are recommended with the most [illegible] confidence for all complaints arising [illegible] being deranged [illegible] Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Nervous [illegible] Loss of Appetite, Intermittent Fever, [illegible] Sour Stomach, Headache, Fever and Ague, Weakness, &c.

As a morning appetizer and after dinner [illegible] they are held in high estimation [illegible] found upon the side board of every family [illegible] are also much relied upon in the [illegible] Scrofula, Rheumatism and Dropsy.

S--T--1860--X

[illegible] at you may be your own [illegible] cy of these celebrated Bitters [illegible] formula of the articles of which [illegible] composed. St. Croix Rum. The [illegible] of pure St. Croix Rum are well known and it has long been recommended by [illegible]. It is manufactured from the Sugar [illegible] and that we use is selected with great care from the estates of a few planters on the island.

Calisaya, or King's Bark, known to civilization until the middle of the seventeenth century. The natives of Peru are generally supposed to have been long previously acquainted with its most wonderful [illegible] qualities. Humboldt makes favorable mention of the febrifuge qualities of this article as an antidote to FEVER AND AGUE, Intermittent and Malarious Fever [illegible] in his extensive South American travels.

CASCARILLA BARK is another important ingredient. It was known in Germany as early as 1690 and much used as a substitute for Peruvian Syrup. It is employed as a gentle stimulant and tonic in Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhoea, Cholic, Dysentery, and Diseases of the stomach and bowels. DANDELION is used for inflammation of the loins and spleen in [illegible] secretions and dropsical affections dependent to obstructions of the abdominal viscera and derangement of the digestive organs generally. CHAMOMILE FLOWERS used for enfeebled digestion and want of appetite. WINTERGREEN is a medicinal plant of [illegible] and is especially valuable in [illegible] Rheumatism and Sciatic affections. LAVENDER FLOWERS an aromatic stimulant tonic highly invigorating in nervous debility, generous to the palate and stomach. ANISE, an aromatic, carminative, creating flesh, muscle and milk. Much used in nursing. S—T—1860—X. Another ingredient of remarkable and wonderful virtues used in the preparation of these Bitters—is a native of Brazil and as yet unknown to the commerce of the world. A Spanish writer says: "* * * administered with St. Croix rum it never fails to relieve Nervous tremor, Wakefulness, disturbed sleep, &c. [illegible] that it is used with great effect by the Brazilian Spanish and Peruvian ladies to heighten their color and beauty. It imparts cheerfulness to the disposition and brilliancy to the complexion." We withhold its name from the public for the present.

To the above are added Clove buds, Orange, Carraway, Coriander and Snake root. The whole is combined by a perfect chemical process and under the immediate supervision of a skilful and scientific Pharmaceutist.

Drake's Plantation Bitters or Old Homestead Tonic, are put up in Patent Bottles representing a Swiss cottage and are an ornament to the side board.

Sea Sickness. Travellers by railroad or upon the inland rivers, where the great change of water is such a prolific cause of incipient disease, like Bilious Intermittent, Ague and Chill Fevers, may feel a certain reliance if they protect themselves with these Bitters. The muddy water of the Western rivers filled with decayed vegetable and animal matter, is quite sure to produce disease unless guarded by an antidote such as is found in the Plantation Bitters.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE PLANTATION BITTERS

Philadelphia, 1st month 15th day 1862.

ESTEEMED FRIEND: Wilt thou send me another Case of thy Bitters? Nothing has proven so beneficial or agreeable to my invalid wife and myself, as the Plantation Bitters.

Thy Friend, ISAAC HOWLAND.

N. B.—The secret of the immense sale of the Plantation Bitters is their tested purity. The St. Croix Rum and every article used is warranted perfectly pure.

It is the intention of the Proprietors to sustain the reputation of this article upon its merit.

Be careful that every bottle bears the fac simile signature of the Proprietors, P. H. DRAKE & Co., New York.
